We request our volunteers to put in extra efforts for collecting more funds. Together we will strive to make the Society a better place to live in.

SYMA SEVA AWARD

- ◆ Thiruvallikkeni besides its sacred, educational, patriotic fervor, has also been the place where the three facets of Tamil language flourished. Vizhavendhan Sri NKT G. Muthu is too well known. He was passionately associated with Nataga Thamizh [drama form] and had seen very many stages, especially in what was the glorious chapter of Historic stage plays. His yeoman services to Finearts would always be remembered and appreciated by persons who were associated with Sabhas in Chennai. Shri Muthu is a philanthropist involved in helping the poor and downtrodden.
- ◆ This year, SYMA was happy in bestowing "SYMA SEVA AWARD 2016" to him in recognition of his outstanding contributions in the field of Finearts and service to society at large. We regret to inform that he left heavenly abode on 29/12/2016.

CHILD FEST

- ◆ For the past forty years, SYMA has been actively involved in serving the society. Besides the medical and educational projects, the annual SYMA Child Fest is an undertaking that we at SYMA, are extremely proud of. The SYMA Child Fest is a platform that not only motivates children to express their talent and creativity, but also infuses a healthy competitive spirit in them. Over the years, the SYMA Child Fest has seen a steady rise in the active participation of schools and students.
- ◆ This year the two-day child fest was held on the 28th and 29th of January, 2017 at the NK Thirumalachariar Girls Hr. Sec. School, Besant Road, Triplicane. Members of Soundarya Rathnamala led by Mrs Prema Krishnamohan, Volunteers from MOP Vaishnav College and Meenakshi Sundararajan Engineering College also lent a helping hand.

- ◆ The programme commenced with the Group Singing event for groups A and B, where the judges were blown away by the sheer talent. The Quiz competition was held soon after, which was excellently executed by our Secretary Mr. Sampath Kumar, followed by the Art competition. The students' flair for artistry was commended by all. The students also proved their knack for out-of-the-box thinking by presenting their ideas in the Innovative Thinking and the PowerPoint Presentation events. The Fancy Dress competition saw students of all ages decked up in various ingenious costumes from which the efforts of their parents were clearly seen that found both the judges and audiences alike responding in delight and amazement.
- ◆ On the 29th, the day kicked off with the Drawing competition, which was divided into five categories. This event was marked by an overwhelming and enthusiastic participation of children of all ages, who eagerly showcased their inventiveness. The concluding event was the Dance competition, where the students stole everyone's hearts with their ovation-worthy performances. The total numbers of participants were around 4000 children from various schools of the city.
- ◆ All the participants were given a prize and a participation certificate, extolling their efforts. The prize distribution ceremony was conducted later in the evening, with the Chief Guest, Mr.Rajesh B.Lakhani, Chief Electoral Officer of Tamilnadu and the Special Guest Ms.Chinmayi Sripaada, Singer and Entrepreneur , CEO of the Blue Elephant, handing out the prizes to the winners. The programme culminated with a rendition of the National Anthem.
